Workshop Report

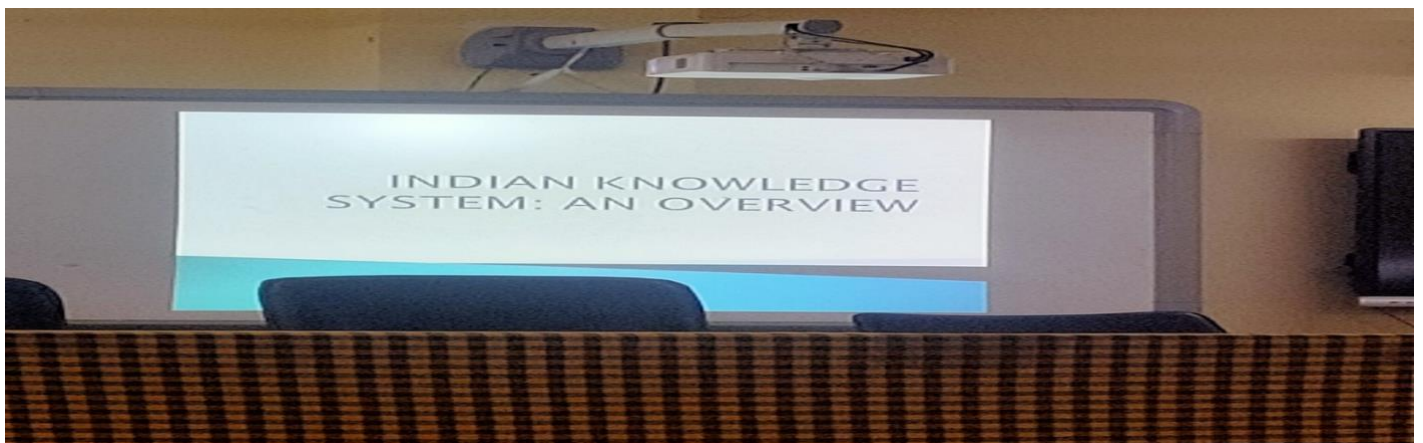

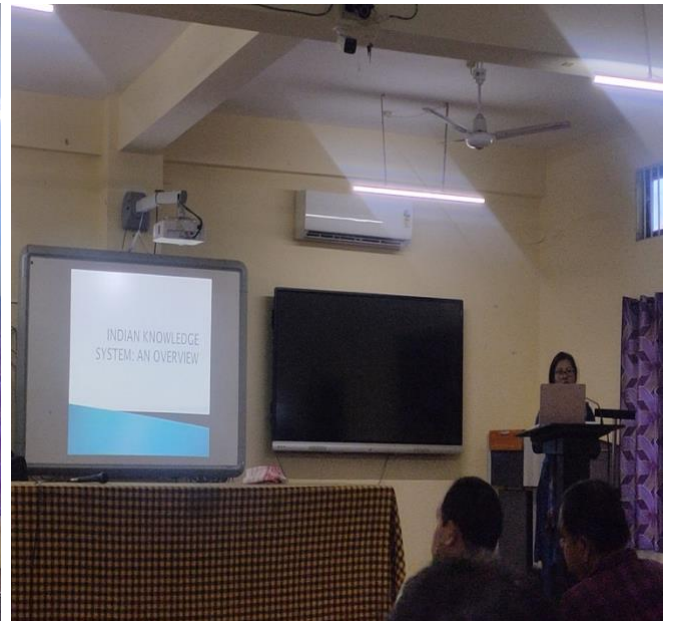

(2nd November, 2023)

The IQAC, Abhayapuri College organized a workshop on INDIAN KNOWLEDGE SYSTEM (IKS) at 2 pm on 2nd November, 2023, in the Purna Ch. Seal Seminar Hall of the college. Miss Parismita Das, Assistant Professor, Department of History, Abhayapuri College and Dr. Silpi Sikha Mahanta, Assistant Professor, Department of Philosophy, Abhayapuri College acted as the speaker in the workshop. All the teaching faculties of the college assembled at the venue. Dr. Santanu Konwar, IQAC Coordinator, Abhayapuri College welcomed the speakers and the participants by presenting the theme of the workshop. The welcome speech was delivered by Dr. S. Nath, Principal, Abhayapuri College, by highlighting the importance of IKS in present day Education. The whole programme was chaired by Dr. Rajesh Tiwari, Associate Professor, Department of English, Abhayapuri College. A one and half hour lecture on the topic An Overview of IKS has been delivered jointly by the speakers. Dr. Silpi Sikha Mahanta delivered her speech on the above theme by presenting an introductory note on IKS, relevance and practicability of IKS in education system. She talked about the broad disciplines and traditional framework of IKS, and also briefly discussed about the vocabulary of the Vedic corpus. Miss Parishmita Das continued the topic by presenting her lecture on Innovative Pedagogy. She discussed how existing IKS courses may be synced to improve quality of classroom and teacher-students interaction. After the presentation, an interactive session was allocated among the speakers and participants. The participants shared opinions, thoughts and suggestions with reference to the main theme. At the outset, Dr. Rajesh Tiwari, Chairperson of the programme, has highlighted the significant points of the whole discussions on IKS. The session wrapped up around 4.30 pm. The seminar came to an end with the Vote of thanks given by Dr. Santanu Konwar, IQAC Coordinator, Abhayapuri College.
